

‘Smile’

Give me a smile

It’s not the last time, but it sure could be a while

I’m falling faster than I ever had the right

I’ll save it for the morning

Between the moments we have left I’ll give you my very best

Here’s a song for you and I hope it sees you through

You’re miles departed and I’m sitting lonely-hearted,

So I’ll sing this one for you

Kiss me again

Just like the first time when you knew we’re more than friends

I miss you madly and you’re stuck up in my head

I’ll save it for the morning

Here’s a song for you and I hope it sees you through

You’re miles departed and I’m sitting lonely-hearted,

So I’ll sing this one for you

Wish away my soul to stay with yours another day; If only wishes were real

I love the way you feel and all the thoughts you steal

Between the moments yet to come I say we have a little fun

Here's a song for you and I hope it sees you through

You're miles departed and I'm sitting lonely-hearted,

Here's a song for you and I hope it sees you through

You're miles departed and I'm sitting lonely-hearted,

So I'll sing this one for you and all the things we'll do

Between the moments we have left.
